ST ANDREWS COCKTAIL WEEK

About Cocktail Week

Get ready for the best showcase of St Andrews, serving up divine signature cocktails, discounts at some of the town's best venues and hosting amazing experiences at the style capital of Scotland!

It's amazing to be back for the second year in beautiful St Andrews – the perfect place for Cocktail Week, boasting a range of stunning high-end bars, restaurants, hotels and more. We are thrilled to say that this year is bigger, better and shinier than ever!

Whether you're a local, student, visitor or tourist, we have handpicked our favourite venues to offer a great range of deals and discounts over a full 10 days! Experience a great range of things to do and enjoy throughout the event, discover hidden gems or support your local favourite by using your wristbands to unlock amazing discounts all over the town. Just by going on a few days out or treating yourself, you're supporting the businesses and the people behind them.

Created by local marketing and events agency, Marketing After Dark, the bigger picture of Cocktail Week has been conceptualised to help resurrect and sustain the hospitality trade which is currently going through an extremely challenging time. Cocktail Week is THE excuse to try all the brilliant cocktails on offer (our team have tried every single one and they truly are GREAT), eat amazing food, check out places you've never been before and maybe even stumble upon a new favourite. Businesses get new customers and an increase in footfall, and you get a super fun experience. A win, for both.

Exclusive interview with Chef Dean Banks

From award winning chef, to owner of Michelin recommended restaurant, Haar. We spoke with Dean Banks about what inspires him.

“Tell us a little bit about Haar and the menu there”

Haar is the flagship restaurant in our group and it always will be – it’s where it started for me. It’s home, I grew up there and it brings back many memories for me, reminding me where my passion for food began, it’s a complete circle.

The menu for Haar is special. It’s a tasting menu only, so this allows us to showcase my individual take on dining. It’s all about foraging the amazing produce that defines Scotland. I feel lucky and proud of the food options we have in this country, and how important it is to us to source this sustainably.

“What ethos does Haar carry and whats the most important thing to you as the owner?”

The single most important thing for me is the food. That’s what matters. Our ethos is buy local, be sustainable. I hand-pick lobsters from our fishermen just along from the restaurant, I collect fresh veg from a farm near my house. I love to make it an experience with my son, showing him the ropes of sustainable foraging for quality ingredients. We try our very best to carry this ethos through each process from sea or land all the way to your plate.

“What makes Haar stand out?”

We do what we do to our best standard. That’s it. We serve stunning, sustainable ingredients and showcase them perfectly, every dish goes through taste and quality checks to ensure real flavours and combinations that people haven't had before. We base our menus on what is available and in season at that time. What inspires the menu is the town itself, the beach and our incredible suppliers who have all contributed to my dream of creating delicious, innovative food.

A photograph of a large, weathered stone archway in the foreground, framing a view of the ruins of St Andrews Cathedral in the background. The cathedral's tall, spire-topped tower is the central focus, set against a blue sky with light clouds. The foreground shows a paved path leading towards the ruins, and the overall scene is bathed in soft, natural light.

The Ultimate St Andrews Cocktail Week Guide

Not sure how to get stuck in with St Andrews Cocktail Week? Stay tuned and read all about the St Cocktail Week must do's, my top spots and recommendations of how you can get involved with all the fun over the 10 days.

Blog by Daisy Low

I hope everyone's looking forward to St Andrews Cocktail Week just as much as I am this year! It's the perfect way to spruce up your spring and try out some of your local hotspots. SO... here is my ultimate guide to St Andrews Cocktail Week.

Starting off strong, my favourite brunch spot is Dune, a brand new cocktail bar on North St by Dean Banks. They have an incredible boozy brunch available every Saturday and Sunday for only £19pp. This includes one food item (I LOVE the waffles!) plus a drink of your choice. I recommend the 'Smoking Hot Escort'.

If you don't drink alcohol, that's fine, treat yourself to a luxury blow dry at Solo Hair with their 25% off offer making you look and feel your best all week. Or if you fancy a real treat, book into the Kohler Waters Spa to unwind, relax and rejuvenate. It's the ultimate destination to replenish your mind and body - plus they have offers on throughout The Old Course Hotel and their restaurants for wristband holders only!

If you're feeling peckish afterwards, enjoy dinner at award-winning fish & chip shop, Cromars. We all know about Cromars, one word, unbelievable. If you're in the mood for somewhere to sit-in, check out The Bothy, modern scottish dining at affordable prices. You need to try their diver caught scallops... fresh and delicious.

End your day by satisfying that sweet tooth, devour a dessert at everyone's favourite, Jannetta's Gelateria. From Gelato to hot puddings they have the lot. Alternatively, head over to Blackhorn and check out their Espresso Shake Martini, dessert in a cocktail - a coffee ice cream treat.

ST ANDREWS COCKTAIL WEEK

Dune

A sneak peak St Andrews' newest contemporary loft bar.

By Millie Hardman

Newly opened in the heart of St Andrews, Dune hosts an intimate loft bar experience. It offers an exciting theatrical smoke and flare cocktail menu, accompanied by a range of unique, small sharing plates, inspired by Chef Dean Banks' favourite flavour combinations.

I would highly recommend the - Oscietra Caviar (a caviar waffle!) which creates the perfect bite of melt in the mouth fresh, buttery caviar, chilled creme fraiche and a soft and crunchy maple syrup drizzled home-made waffle. My drink of choice was the "Warming Waters", an innovative, gin based cocktail combining Courvoisier, Aperol, Orgeat and Rathfinny Brut.

As part of Cocktail Week, they will be offering a discounted cocktail menu along with 10% off the main food menu! Giving you the perfect excuse to try St Andrews' newest loft bar.

Dune is also hosting a spectacular boozy brunch, be sure to check it out! Every Saturday and Sunday for only £19pp, treat yourself and join Dean Banks and the Dune team for an elevated and delicious cocktail brunch, served from 11am every weekend.

From fresh eggs Benedict and waffles to trout pastrami, there is something on our menu for everyone to enjoy! All paired deliciously with expertly crafted drinks, including Bellinis and Bloody Marys.
